THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF

THE HOME FOR AGED MEN.

JANUARY 1, 1892.

The Annual Report is respectfully submitted in accordance with the By-Laws of the Corporation.

The year has not been marked with any exceptional event. The inmates, having been blessed with their usual health, have gratefully enjoyed the comforts afforded them by the Home.

Since its organization,— thirty-one years,— the admissions have been one hundred and seventy-eight. The average age of the present inmates is seventy-five and a half years. The oldest is ninety-four years, and the youngest sixty-one years. During the same period one hundred and ninety have been placed on the list of outside beneficiaries.

Mr. James Longley resigned the office of Treasurer last June. His faithful services in this responsible position were fully appreciated by the members of the Corporation, who passed the following resolution at their meeting, June 5: —

Resolved, That, the resignation of Mr. James Longley as Treasurer of the Home for Aged Men having been accepted by the Corporation, its members will not allow the opportunity to pass without placing upon record their grateful appreciation of his long-continued and faithful services in that capacity.

For these services, extending over a period of nearly sixteen years, the members of the Corporation for themselves and in behalf of the friends and beneficiaries of the institution extend to Mr. Longley their hearty thanks, and beg leave to assure him that in his retirement from the office of Treasurer he carries with him their best wishes for his future prosperity and happiness, and they are glad to learn that they are not to be wholly deprived of his advice and counsel in the future conduct of the affairs of the Home.

Voted, That a copy of this resolve suitably enrolled on parchment and signed by the President and Clerk of the Corporation be sent to Mr. Longley.

Mr. Charles W. Jones, President of the New England National Bank of Boston, was chosen Treasurer, and entered upon his duties June 8.

The following bequests are reported by the Treasurer: —

From the estate of Mrs. Amelia Milton,	$500.00
" " Joseph Schofield,	1,000.00
" " Cotton Center Johnson (in part),	400.00

It will be seen by the Treasurer's report that the current income has been $21,161.53; and the disbursements have been, for the maintenance of the Home and for outside beneficiaries, $23,708.90.

While no financial statement can measure the good done by this institution in its special sphere, it would be an indication of the work accomplished. Therefore, it has been deemed advisable to present a financial summary for the thirty-one years. We believe that this exhibit will be gratifying to all of the friends of the Home, and will encourage those who desire to aid a successful and most worthy charity.

RECEIPTS:
Donations,	$109,788.24
Fees and other sources,	25,678.06
Income,	309,160.27
Legacies,	469,766.59
	$914,393.16
DISBURSEMENTS:
Outside aid,	$110,884.61
Maintenance of Home,	324,314.50
Home Building and furniture,	94,877.49
	$530,076.60

It must not be assumed from the above statement that the Home has all the property which it needs or can use judiciously. Our expenses have exceeded our income for many years, and it is necessary that the funds should be considerably increased to prevent any encroachment upon the principal and to meet the urgent demands upon us to increase the number of beneficiaries.

Religious services have been held at the Home on the last Sunday of each month, with the exception of the summer months.

These services have been conducted by the following clergymen: Rev. Charles Conklin, Rev. M. J. Savage, Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, Rev. J. M. Lowden, Rev. G. H. Young, Rev. D. W. Waldron, Rev. Loren B. McDonald, Rev. A. H. Plumb, D.D.

Miss Alice M. Joy and our young friends from the Shawmut Universalist Church have continued to be most constant in furnishing music for these services and at funerals.

A company of King's Daughters from the First Baptist Church, Commonwealth Avenue, gave us an entertainment of music and readings.

Other kind friends have furnished pleasant entertainments of music.

We have received from the City Mission Fresh Air Fund, through Rev. D. W. Waldron, three hundred and twenty-eight street-car tickets, a fifty-ride ticket to Nantasket or Hingham, entertainment at the Old Folks' Party in Franklin Park for forty-two inmates, and cards for the household at Easter.

Messrs. Page & Harris have allowed us the use of their telephone for the year.

From the publishers we have received the following papers: Boston Transcript, Zion's Herald, Dumb Animals, Christian Leader, Missionary Herald.

We make grateful acknowledgment to these and to all others who have endeavored to benefit, entertain, or edify the inmates of the Home.

We must recognize most appreciatively the constant, skilful, and faithful services of our Physician, also the careful and efficient services of our Superintendent, Miss Malloy.

The regular bounteous Thanksgiving Dinner, provided for by the income of the Peter C. Brooks Fund, was served; and Christmas was appropriately observed.

It must never be forgotten that the Home is not a hospital, nor a boarding-house or hotel, but what its name and purpose indicates, a home for aged respectable gentlemen. And we would emphasize the following statement made in one of the earliest annual reports of the Directors as worthy of reiteration and the most careful consideration of all interested in the welfare and success of the Home: —

It is believed that it would not be easy to name an institution which has yielded to its friends and supporters a larger return in the positive comfort of those whose necessities appeal to our Christian love, and whose last years on earth we would so gladly make years of rest and quietness. It is of the first importance, in conducting a Home like ours, to guard, as far as possible, against the disturbances and inconveniences which would be caused by the introduction of discordant elements, and especially to be sure that, in attempting to succor the deserving in the time of their adversity, we are offering no bounty upon improvidence or vice. The Committee on Beneficiaries have made conscientious and careful inquiry into every case that has been brought before them; and, if at any time we have seemed inhospitable, there has been, or at least there seemed to be, sufficient cause. These thorough investigations are not always pleasant; but the results which are reached by means of them may be reckoned among the incidental advantages of the institution: they enable the charitably disposed to draw a line between the deserving and the undeserving, and sometimes serve to designate as suitable objects for private sympathy and beneficence one and another, who, however meritorious they may be, cannot, without violence to our rules, be admitted to this Home.

In closing, we would not fail to express our gratitude to a kind Providence for the success and blessings of the Home for Aged Men.

For the Directors,

JOHN D. W. JOY,
JONATHAN A. LANE,
JOHN HOMANS, 2d,
Committee.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates. At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee, the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered, with the name of the donor, in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-Laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven one-half o'clock; dinner at one o'clock; supper at six o'clock.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates, at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation. No article of food or drink, except as provided in the diet list or ordered by the Physician, shall be used in the house, unless by permission of the Superintendent.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

9. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

10. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician, when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

11. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

12. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

13. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants or servants. If they have cause for complaint, they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to the Executive Committee.

14. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

15. No inmate or person employed in the house will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock P.M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.

16. The Superintendent must see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished by ten o'clock at night.

17. Inmates should make it known to the Superintendent when they are going out.

18. Any one desiring to visit his friends must obtain leave of the Superintendent, whom he shall inform of the place where he intends to stay and the probable length of his visit. The time of making visits, as well as their frequency, is left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

19. The friends of inmates and the public generally may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock A.M. and from three to five P.M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

20. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same; and, if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee, to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

21. Inmates earning money must pay the same to the Executive Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the special use and benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of the Committee.

22. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.

FORM OF BOND.

I, the undersigned, in consideration of having become a beneficiary or inmate of the Home for Aged Men, do hereby agree to obey the rules and regulations adopted by the Directors, and my right to remain in the Home shall depend upon such obedience; and I do hereby sell and make over to the Corporation all such personal property as I have brought to the Home, and agree that all property which I shall bring to the Home for my use shall then become the property of said Corporation. And, for the consideration aforesaid, I do hereby sell and convey to said Corporation any property, both real and personal, which I now have, and hereby agree to sell and convey to said Corporation all property, both real and personal, which I now or may hereafter own, and to execute all papers and to do all things necessary to transfer and convey said property to said Corporation for the following purposes: to sell, convey, and dispose of the same or such parts thereof as may be necessary, and apply sufficient of the proceeds of the sale thereof to pay said Corporation all that it may have paid or spent on my account, and reimburse itself for the board and supplies furnished to me, and to invest the balance of said proceeds, and hold the same and interest thereon as security for what sums may be spent or supplies furnished to me or on my account, and upon my death to pay and convey the balance of said funds, over and above what is sufficient to reimburse said Corporation for all that has been paid for me and on my account, to such parties as I shall by will direct or to my legal representatives.
